Advanced Diploma of Nursing
(Enrolled/Division 2 Nursing) -
Nursing in Aged Care
Over the next few decades, as Australia faces increasing numbers of an ageing population, aged care is an area of nursing that will grow in significance. Skilled aged care workers will always be in demand, and nurses who are interested in this sector will find it a rewarding career option.

IHNA’s comprehensive training courses are designed for nurses who wish to make their career in Australia, and help them to quickly make a smooth transition to the healthcare environment in this country.

At IHNA, we strive to provide innovative, clinically relevant and globally current healthcare education to nursing students with the ultimate goal of improved patient-centric care. Our course curriculum is evidence-based, and offers a blend of sound clinical practice and theoretical knowledge. IHNA’s courses are delivered by experienced nurses who have practiced in the Australian medical environment, and are well versed in current professional competencies.

IHNA students are given the highest priority and end-to-end support to fulfil their learning goals. Our mission is to create competent and confident professionals who can stand ahead of their peers, and make their mark in the healthcare sector across the globe. To date, over 2000 students in over 100 batches have completed courses at IHNA with hugely successful results, and have gone on to achieve exceptional job outcomes in leading institutes in Australia and around the world.
